

How many must a man walk down
Before you him a man?
How many seas must a dove sail dove = pigeon: Taube
Before she in the sand?
How many must the cannon balls fly Kanonenkugeln
Before they're banned? to ban: verbieten
The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind
The answer is blowin' in the wind.
How many can a mountain exist
Before it is washed to the?
How many years can some exist
Before they're allowed to be?
How many times can a man turn his (ab)wenden
And pretend that he just doesn't? pretend: vorgeben, so tun als ob
The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind
The answer is blowin' in the wind.
How many times must a man up
Before he can see the?
How many must one man have
Before he can people cry?
How many deaths will it
Till he that too many people have died? till = until: bis
The answer, my friend, is blowin' in the wind.
The answer is blowin' in the wind.

Blowin' in the Wind ist einer der bekanntesten Folksongs. 2004 wurde der Song von der Musikzeitschrift Rolling Stone auf Platz 14 der 500 besten Songs aller Zeiten gewählt. Bob Dylan schrieb den Text. Die Melodie stammt von einem alten Gospel.

Der Song galt als eine Hymne der Folk-Rock-Bewegung. Der Liedtext mit den rhetorischen Fragen wurde zu einer Anti-Kriegs-Hymne. Coverversionen gibt es von Peter, Paul & Mary, Joan Baez, Marlene Dietrich, Elvis Presley und Stevie Wonder.

Fill in MUCH (viel) or MANY (viele):

How.....times must I ring the bell? How does this modern painting cost? How players are there in a football team? How students are there in your class? There isn't petrol left in the tank. I spend too..... money on DVDs. How bread will we need? Don't eat too sugar. He smokes too..... You watch too videos. Have they gotfriends? How bottles (Flaschen) did you buy? boys play ice hockey, but notgirls. How times can you reload (aufladen) this battery? How time will the reloading take? You work too You read too novels (Romane).