

ant bridge bus stop butterfly cauliflower coconut dozen drum Easter electricity ~~fox~~ frog glasses gold ice hockey island lungs magnet map matches newspaper novel orange pencil present rent scissors skeleton spider wasp

Wild animal of the dog family usually with red fur and a bushy tail.	a fox	fur: Fell
It shows you the route you have to take.		route: Route, Weg
You write with it, and it needs regular sharpening.		to sharpen: schärfen,
They come in a box and are used to light candles, cigarettes, bonfires.		bonfire:, Gartenfeuer
Some people read one every day.
You need them if you've got bad eyesight.		sight: Sicht
What you get on our birthday and at Christmas.
A fruit whose name is also its colour.
Another word for twelve.
It allows you to cross a river on foot or by car.
It can swim. It is usually green. It has long back legs.
You wait there on the roadside. It usually has a timetable.		timetable: Fahrplan
It is surrounded by a lake or the sea.		to surround: umgeben
I supply the power for your radio, your dishwasher, your lamp.		to supply: liefern
This religious festival is celebrated with eggs.		to celebrate: feiern
An insect with four wings, often brightly coloured.		wing: Flügel
Two breathing organs in the chest of man and other animals.		to breathe: atmen
If you don't own your flat, you have to pay this.		flat: Wohnung
A story about people, long enough to fill one or more books.		enough: genug
Precious yellow metal used for making coins, ornaments, jewellery etc.		jewellery: Schmuck
Cutting instrument with two blades which cut as they come together.		blade: Klinge
Framework of bones of an animal or human body		bone: Knochen
Creature with eight legs that spins webs for the capture of insects as food.		capture: Gefangennahme
Flying insect with a narrow waist, black and yellow stripes and a powerful sting in he tail.		waist: Taille
Cabbage-like plant with a large white flower-head used as a vegetable.		cabbage: Kohl
Game played on ice by two teams of eleven players with curved sticks and a rubber disk, between two goals.		stick: Stock
Piece of iron, often horseshoe shape, able to attract iron.		attract: anziehen
Musical instrument sounded by beating, and made of a hollow cylinder with parchments stretched tightly over the open sides.		hollow: hohl
Small insect with six feet. It lives in highly organised societies.
Large hard-shelled seed of a palm-tree, filled with milky juice and a solid white lining.		lining: Streifen, Schicht