

Nouns: car, driver, bonnet, engine, fuel pipe, petrol tank, windshield, fire, smoke, fire extinguisher, sausages, knife and fork, napkin, BBQ (barbecue)...

Verbs: burn, scare, shout, call, eat, roast, broil ...

Adjectives: hot, dangerous, fearful, brave, grateful, amazed, astonished, joyful, hopeful, hungry...

*Who is talking or thinking?
Draw reference lines:*

Hey, you. Just don't panic! I know how to handle burning cars. No problem for me.

Oh no! My car's burning. I must stop at once.

I guess he's got a problem. A broken fuel pipe perhaps?

A grilled sausage is an excellent meal. Well, there might be a little taste of petrol.

It can't be true! Hey, you must be crazy!

Fire! Help! My car is going to blow up.

Thank God, someone's coming to help!

Please, Hugo, I'm hungry too!

What should Hugo and the man do?

- Find a garden hose and sprinkle water on the burning engine.
- Find a big cloth and try to smother the fire.
- Immediately run away. The petrol tank will explode right away.
- Call the fire brigade. In the meantime watch the fire carefully.
- Look for a fire extinguisher. Read the instructions and then fight the fire.
- Go to a butcher's and buy a sausage or a pork chop. Enjoy a barbecue.