

16.1. Plural. Setze die Nomen in die Mehrzahl:

| | |
|----------|-------|
| wife | wives |
| woman | |
| sandwich | |
| tomato | |
| hero | |
| kilo | |
| German | |
| hobby | |
| wolf | |
| ox | |

| | |
|--------|--|
| tooth | |
| sheep | |
| lady | |
| mouse | |
| house | |
| child | |
| foot | |
| half | |
| potato | |
| knife | |

16.2. SHAKING HANDS. Schreibe die Wörter in die entsprechende Lücke:

– How do you do? - question - age - family - custom (Brauch) – most - hands – a sword (Schwert) - first

Hundreds of years ...ago..., soldiers began this They shook to show that they didn't have Now, shaking hands is a custom in countries. In Britain you don't shake hands with your friends and But you do shake hands when you meet a person for the time. You also say "How do you do?". This is not really a The correct answer is exactly the same, "....."

16.3. GEOGRAPHY. Beantworte die Fragen:

The Alps - ~~Canberra~~ - Texas - The Pacific - The Rhine - Jamaica - The Bahamas - Asia - The Amazon - The Atlantic

- ... Canberra..... is the capital of Australia.
- is between Africa and America.
- is a river in South America.
- is a group of islands near Florida.
- is a river in Europe.
- are mountains in central Europe.
- is the largest ocean.
- is the largest continent in the world.
- is a US-State, which is famous for oil and cowboys.
- is an island in the Caribbean.

ILL. "BERNESE OBERLAND", PHOTO: LDs