

In the text below, the sentences have been jumbled up.

Put them in the correct order!

..... But Julian can't brake in time.

..... The farmer opens the door himself.

...2... They approach a farm.

..... And so he runs over the rooster.

..... Only then do they see that there are chickens right in the middle of the path.

..... Julian and David are racing like mad along the dirt track on their bikes.

..... David shouts loudly, "Watch out!"

..... The two boys stop and get off their bikes.

..... With a heavy heart, they watch the rooster's final twitches.

..... Hesitantly, they knock on the front door.

..... Then they pick up the dead bird and walk to the farmhouse.

..... He is not at all pleased when he sees the mess.

..... After a moment's thought, the farmer says,

..... The boys solemnly promise,

..... "We will replace the rooster for you."

..... You'll come to the farm every morning at five o'clock to crow!"

..... "All right.