

“Oh, doctor, I’m just so nervous. This is my first operation.”

“Don’t worry. Mine too.”

Laughing about taboo subjects does not go down well with some people. The jokes listed here are therefore only suitable for people who understand black humour and should not be taken seriously under any circumstances.

Connect the two parts of the joke with a line:

A priest asks the convicted murderer at the electric chair, “Do you have any last requests?”		They stopped once I started doing the same to them at funerals.
“I’m sorry” and “I apologize” mean the same thing.		When you get handed the camera every time they take a group photo.
My senior relatives liked to tease me at weddings, saying things like, “You’ll be next!”		“Yes,” replies the murderer. “Can you please hold my hand?”
It’s important to establish a good vocabulary. One of my best friends would still be alive.		Or at least it does if you throw it hard enough.
Do you know when you’re not liked?		Except at a funeral.
An apple a day keeps the doctor away.		If I had known the difference between the words “antidote” and “anecdote”.

convicted: condemned

request: desire

to tease: to harass

wedding: marriage

to establish: to create

funeral: burial

antidote: medicine

anecdote: story

Where did Joe go after getting lost on a minefield?		So I threw him out. I hate having visitors.
You’re not completely useless.		But if you donate five kidneys, they call the police.
It turns out a major new study recently found that humans eat more bananas than monkeys.		If anybody does, please just send me your contact details and we can drop them off tomorrow.
My husband and I have reached the difficult decision that we do not want children.		But I can’t remember the last time I ate a monkey.
Why is it that if you donate a kidney, people love you.		You can always be used as a bad example.
I visited my new friend in his apartment. He told me to make myself at home.		Everywhere.

major: important

recently: newly donate: give

kidney: an organ

drop off: deliver
